

NORTH JACKSON MINE - 1923.

Repairs were made in November to the North wall of the old brick blacksmith shop which is used by the Constabulary as a garage. The fill against the wall pushed it in and caused it to cave. A new wall of concrete and frame construction was built.