

NORTH JACKSON MINE - 1924.

During the summer the old Jackson office was painted. This building is being used as a barracks for the Michigan State Police.

During the year fences were repaired around the open pits.